San Juanderer Club

April Outing

Westport, Washington

On April 15, fifteen San Juanderer coaches met in Westport for an outing at the American Sunset Resort in Westport Washington. The 23rd World Class Crab Races with two days of fun, food, music and mayhem were celebrated fully by the club.

The early birds who arrived Thursday met for happy hour and then went out for dinner, some for pizza and some for the Westport Winery, all said their meals were delicious.

Friday we met up for another happy hour, with lots of wonderful snacks, then off to the One Eyed Crab for dinner. Later a fun game of 'Left, Right, Center' was played with chocolate macadamia kisses as the prizes. Those sweet treats were shared with everyone, and were delicious.

Saturday morning breakfast was prepared and served by the host Hinds and Stewarts. We had lots of help from Ted and Ellen's grandson, and the French toast and bacon were well appreciated. President Erik held a quick meeting, followed by cake and champagne to celebrate Al and Mari Williamson's 67th anniversary. Then we were all off for an afternoon of crab races and crab feed in Westport. The Barretts, Slyes, Stanleys and Schreiners were all observed in the tent, cracking large Dungeness crabs with all the fixings. The Williamson's gathered their meal up for a picnic in their coach, with daughter Jan and son Steve. Kevin Hillstrom tried his hand at crab racing, while Tori, the Stewarts and the Slyes cheered him on.

We spent the afternoon taking in the sights, traveling to area destinations such as Tokeland, Aberdeen, and downtown Westport. Meeting up again in the evening, another rousing game of 'LRC' was played by a very large group, this time with quarters; Cheryl Stewart and Tom Rodewald ultimately won the next two rounds. It was noticed that the quarters were not shared as the chocolates were the night before.

Sunday we met once more for donuts, muffins and oatmeal before heading home or off to further coastal destinations. Thank you all from the Hinds and Stewarts for a wonderful weekend!

Cheryl Stewart
