San Juanderer Club Outing McMinnville, Oregon October 2011

Sixteen coaches came to the October San Juanderer outing on the 13th through 16th. It was held at the Olde Stone Village RV Park with the Wards and the Rodewalds hosting the affair. The park was very attractive, had large sites, lots of grassy areas, a great clubhouse and a comfortable TV room. Kudos goes to Dianne Mumaw for a wonderful find. Many arrived a day early with a stop at the Hawks Prairie Restaurant to begin the weekend of laughter and food. The weather was sunny and happy hour was held outside. Gary and Kathie Ayers brought everyone reusable bags for everyone filled with information about the area. They also set up the golf for Saturday and were a great source of information about our options for the area.

Thursday was a day for individual exploring. McMinnville, a quaint, charming town has many attractions. The group sampled the various wineries, checked out the open market in town, the casino and, of course, the local restaurants. The weather started to turn and happy hour was held in the clubhouse. Tom Rodewald showed off his splint for his broken elbow and Scott Ziegler was happy to see his black cloud move on to someone else, although he wished it could have moved to someone outside our chapter.

Erik Ward set up a tour of the Air/Space Museum and many of the group enjoyed that activity on Friday. The three buildings were within walking distance of the park and contained over 200 aircraft and other exhibits. The Hughes Spruce Goose was in one of them and is so big it could be seen from the highway. One building was dedicated to space flight. The last building contained the Imax Theater with five shows about aviation and space; some of which were in 3D. Everyone who saw them was impressed

We had our chapter meeting and Erik gave the nominating committee's recommendations for next year's officers. Dinner was potluck followed by games – left, right, center and bridge.

Saturday morning started with french toast, ham and fruit served by the hosts with help from the Stapletons. Golf followed with 10 of the members participating in the event – with plenty of yellow jacket visitors. The weather turned sunny again and others went shopping, checked out the town or otherwise enjoyed the day. For dinner, many of us went to the Golden Valley Brewery and enjoyed their excellent food.

The outing concluded with a light breakfast on Sunday prepared by the hosts. Everyone said their goodbyes, safe travels, and look forward to seeing each other in November.
